

Dr. Christopher Kerr: Dreams & Visions Of The Dying

March 28, 2019 by David Sunfellow

Dr. Christopher W. Kerr is the Chief Medical Officer at The Center for Hospice and Palliative Care in Buffalo, New York, where he has worked since 1999. His background in research has evolved from bench science towards the human experience of illness as witnessed from the bedside, specifically patients' dreams and visions at the end of life. Although medically ignored, these near universal experiences often provide comfort and meaning as well as insight into the life led and the death anticipated.

To learn more about death bed visions, shared death experiences, after death communications, and related phenomenon, go here.

To learn more about the power of dreams and dreaming, go here.

Death Is But A Dream Website

