0:01:37 - Marie

Julie for having me, and I'm excited to be here.

0:01:40 - Julie

Wonderful. Let's just get right into it. What's Feng Shui?

0:01:45 - Marie

Well, Feng Shui, first of all, is an energy system from China that is around about 3,000 years. Literally it means wind and water and it's all about energy flow. You can kind of compare it with like when we look at acupuncture or tai chi or qigong it works with the energy of the body, but this is working with the energy of your home. So it is really an art of placing the furniture, placing the images, the paintings, but also adding the colors into your home so you'll feel at peace and harmony but also start attracting good fortune and success, money and relationships.

0:02:27 - Julie

I've used it for probably 25 years as a medical, intuitive and psychic medium. I can see the energy flow in my mind's eye in the home. I can see what's happening and see the energy flowing down the street for abundance and coming in the front door and things like that. So I've been so excited to talk to you because I know this stuff works. I know it firsthand from my own home. So I've got lots of questions for you, girl, to talk about all of this. How does that person's energy affect what they experience in life? Do we attract things based on our own personal energy?

0:03:09 - Marie

Well, you know what my grandmas and Feng Shui always told us there were three ways that we work with energy. And the first one is what we would call the spiritual, locked spiritual aspect, and that is your soul coming into your body with a, I would say, a basic package of talents, of a purpose that you have in life, and we align with that or we do not. You know, sometimes we do not connect with it and so by this, apparently like 33% of how you work with energy, and so it can change. You know, if you, for example, change living in a certain place, like I come from living in Belgium to living in Los Angeles, my spiritual luck will change because there's a different surrounding where I am.

And the second part is what we do with that spiritual basic package as a human being. So what is the mindset that we have on this or behavior? What are the actions we take? We call that the human aspect of working with your energy. And the third aspect, what is most missed out, is the environment, is the energy for where you live, sleep and work, so your home and where you work, and that is affecting also the earth energy and your connection to manifest, and that's, for most people, the missing link of energy. They focus on their mindset and focus on their energy of their body, of their soul and, spiritually, the connections they have with God, but then they forget to have also connection with the place where they live Well.

0:04:45 - Julie

That goes along the lines of I do a lot of work with clients. I'm a medical intuitive and an energy healer and I'm like a human MRI, Marie, and there are many times when a client will come to me and they've been to many doctors and same diagnoses, you know, same treatment modalities still have the symptoms and I'll see that they have their bodies are full of mold, and then I'll scan their house and I, again, like a human MRI, I can see in the walls, I can see in my mind's eye where the mold is and I'll say you've got a mold problem. So that goes back to what you're talking about, with the environment not only affecting our sense of abundance and all of those other goodies, but also our health. Have you felt that to be the same?

0:05:35 - Marie

Yes, for sure, for sure. First of all used for health and well being, not for money or relationships. So they would look at where is the best location to build a house, for example. You want to avoid the cold Nordic winds and have the warmer Southern and Western winds in the Northern Hemisphere. But also, you know, I'm also a dousing master, so I also check in and I have the. Like you, I am an intuitive. I can see in my mind's eye what is going on and I see, sometimes, underground water or, you know, I see people's aura field and like, yeah, there's mold. I mean I can do all the functions of the world, but if there's mold I cannot change that because you have to really look into that. But also I can see the electromagnetic fields that are, you know, disturbing the health. But it's always more than the health, because if the health is not okay, they don't sleep well, it will affect their relationships, it will affect their productivity and their business.

0:06:32 - Julie

Right, and there are certain energy lines in somebody's home correct. Talk to us about like. I'm really familiar with the financial lines because I've had experience with that as a serial entrepreneur. You know it's like is it up, is it down? What's going on? If I'm seeing that the energy flow of money is interrupted, then we're tweaking things in the business. So please explain to everybody how that works.

0:06:59 - Marie

Well, if we look at Feng Shui perspective, then we know that everything is connected to wind vibration, so the flow of energy, and so, based on the birthday, you actually have your own wind direction that is always strong, like your energy line for you. For example, mine is southwest, so I need to always take care of the southwest of my house, so the southwest of my full floor plan or the southwest of every corner. So in the southwest stands for me, but for you can be east or north. Whatever that is, I need to make sure it's decluttered, I need to make sure it's aligned. So I have, for example, my bookshelf, I have my awards there, I have my major bank statements, my contracts are always in the southwest because that's where the line of energy comes in. And people can sign that out by, first of all, checking in with the book Feng Shui Alive that just came out through Teihouse. But also they can go to the free Mary Diamond app and so, as they go into the app, they actually have to put in their birth, gender and their birth date, because it creates an energetic profile and then, based on that, you will receive your directions that are good for success and money, health, relationship and wisdom, and then you get a diamond compass and the diamond compass literally looks like this. So it's like you will get directions that are showing up and there are other directions that are empty. So especially the one that success is where your energy line for the rest of your life it's always the same. For me it's southwest. For you, something else is always has to be strong. So whatever you have placed there is creating one third of the results of your vibration. So that's on the Feng Shui perspective.

Now, from a perspective of the magnetic field, if people have a house with a lot of underground water and they have a, you know that underground water hitting their front door, they are literally, you know, losing money, because it's like underground water is is always a symbol of money in Feng Shui.

It's actually it kind of drains their front door and it drains their money. So we have simple what we call acupuncture sticks that we're placing in the house to totally harmonize that and then people see like within a few days, that the money has to turn around. But it can also be images around you, because you know everything around you is subconsciously affecting you, like you have this beautiful image around you from a mountain from a castle, so that's actually very above it, like you're like the queen of that castle, people symbolically, right. You're like I'm visiting this castle, right, but it also have a mountain behind you, so we have a mountain behind you. It gives you that support, financial support. You will see, a lot of the wealthy places in the world have always mountains, because when there's mountains there, you will have long term money in your name, in your life Interesting.

0:10:06 - Julie

I never thought of that. I love that. I'm the queen of my castle. I was, like you know, in a fairy tale. Maybe I could just imagine walking into that. Oh, I love that. That's a riot. Well, yeah, you look at Switzerland and you look at a lot of the other places in the world where people have chalets, or even here in America is certainly veil aspen. You know the yes.

0:10:31 - Marie

But also like Hong Kong, you know, there's water and there's mountains, like Monaco, and it's for, you know, 10 years in Monaco area. So there's mountains, there's water here in Malibu. You know, in California there's mountains and there's water. If there just would be water, it would not be enough. The mountains always keep the water, keep the money.

0:10:54 - Julie

Yeah. So a couple of stories of things that have happened in my home that I've experienced myself. First of all, I have beveled glass. I've let a glass French doors on the front of our home, and then the whole back of the house is all glass, like floor to ceiling, 40 feet of glass. And so I was told that the money comes in and that's what I see as it comes down somebody's street and comes into the front door, but it's flying out the back of my house because it's all glass. And so what I was told by a Feng Shui Gao with whom I've used for years was to put two little mirrors, one kind of on the baseboard and one on the French door heading out to the back of the house, so that the money is reflected back in and it doesn't flow out the back. It was almost immediate the difference that I noticed. That was number one. Number two after my parents had died, Marie, I brought my mother's crystal in China home and I put them in a cabinet on one side of the fireplace.

What was right? In the middle of the financial line? And I was noticing something happening there that didn't look good. And I called my Feng Shui Gao and I said I had the hacks going on. And she said, well, have you done anything differently there? And I said, yeah, I put my mother's stuff in there. And she said, well, how did your mother feel about money? I said, yeah, there was never enough no-transcript. And she said get it out of there. And I said what am I going to do with that? I want to use it and I want to keep it. She said put it down on the lower level, get it off of your financial line. And I did. And, Marie, instantly the financial line energy went back to normal. That was so amazing to me at how it instantly changed.

0:12:47 - Marie

Yeah it's good, it works very fast. It's very interesting. I always say to people between nine hours and nine weeks. So, depending on how sensitive people are, it will go faster. You don't have to believe in it. That's not about believe, it's about how fast you react to energy. So for you, as you're super sensitive to energy, you will immediately have the shift, or even just a shift in your mindset. Sometimes so, but most people, within nine weeks they see a change. And so if people even you know, we look also at when people work at their office like the directions, there are literally 360 degrees and an accomplice and, depending on your birthday, there will be certain degrees that are strong. And then even in these degrees, like Southwest, there's specific degrees that even that I can say put your desk, this degree and it's like, ultimately, what they see is that within a few months they double their income.

It's just really very interesting how the winds can really change. You know the frequencies, of course, that you're tapping into, but we have to be very aware of what we place around us, because subconsciously, it is affecting us. It's like to the mirror neurons of our brain. Whatever is around us is affecting ourself and so, of course, what you place there with your energy of the mother you know and how she was connecting in with money, will affect you, because it's like all your ancestral programs will start stirring up because you have that image out there from your you know your ancestors, so we need to be careful about that.

0:14:27 - Julie

Is it that the energy was in her China and Crystal? Or was it my interpretation of how she felt about money? Because I didn't think about it when I put it there? I just happened to scan the financial line and I was like, holy shabby, something's up here, yeah.

0:14:46 - Marie

Well, I didn't vote, to be honest, I think you know. First of all, you know everything you have around us absorbs our vibration, right, and especially ceramics, because ceramics and crystals are very good in absorbing energy and so we know that just from crystals itself, like beautiful gemstones. So even if things are made with crystal or ceramic, they are great absorbers. So whenever her mindset was, and perhaps her confusions were, in the dining room or in a place where she had, that, china was just absorbing. And that's the first thing. But also the second part is that by having it there, especially in your financial connection, is that for you I was a broad forward, your ancestral programs, yeah, that you just like, oh, because you're trained somehow by your mother about money, right?

So I had that once I put this image of my mother out in my relationship direction, right, like my mother and me, right, because I love my mother, to pass on. So I put it there and suddenly I start talking about my mother, like I said literally to my students, like you cannot have everything, you cannot have a great, good looking husband and all the money of the world, and I was like, where's that coming from? You know, I was like, oh, my God, it's like I put in my picture of my mother. I put her now in my wisdom and inspirational connection because she gives me inspiration and she gave me a lot of wisdom. But I never put her in my relationship direction anymore because somehow that was like my old program. That was words that my mother always said, yeah so and I was like, no, I can have it all. I can have a good looking husband for 33 years together and I can have all the money of the world. So sometimes it's just like it's there and it brings something up in us.

0:16:45 - Julie

Well in your mother living in Belgium, I think there's probably a pretty good chance she was there during World War II and probably experienced some horrific things, or at least scary things. I'm sure she went to a bomb shelter probably more than once in her.

0:17:01 - Marie

I don't think that, because you know she was in a very safe area with farms, but you know they had to shelter German soldiers in their farm, so I mean, and they had refugees that they were trying to save. So there was a lot of things. Of course, everybody at the time had some experiences, but I think it was really interesting that we are just always so connected. I always say like you're subconsciously reflecting onto you all the time, and that's why I sometimes call it it's like your three-dimensional vision board right, so it can support you. It can also block you.

0:17:43 - Julie

How does the energy work outside of the home? I am very into gardens and have a lot of gardens in our. We have a very big lot and it kind of looks like a botanical garden and if there's a plant or a bush or a tree or something that's suffering or that's dying, it's like I gotta get it switched, I gotta get it healed. I it's. There's definitely something there, am I? What am I picking up on with that?

0:18:12 - Marie

Well, you know, we also have a they call landscape Song Shui. So it means that your home is not just a physical structure, right, it's like our body. We have our physical body, but we have an aura field, and so exactly our home is also surrounded by an aura field and we always say, within like 10 feet, that's like three meters, it's actually the same as our etheric body. When we look at like 30 feet, it's like that's 10 meters, it's like our emotional body, and another 30 feet that's again 10 meter is like our mental body. Yeah, so that whatever is happening around us is physically affecting our body all the time.

So I just moved to LA and beautiful home in Bel Air, but the garden was not taken care of, and so I I've been tapping into the garden, like you know, to the consciousness of the garden, because everything is a living being, and like, what do I need to do? And so we had to, like, cut a few trees for the sunlight. You know, I was a whole preparation for me to be in connection with that tree to you know, to explain to the tree you know I need to let you go. You know we'll take care of the rules. Like things like this.

I'm in constant conversation always with things around us and so, and I know, the garden starts feeling already happier because now you know we put in new grass and you know putting new plants, and so you have to understand there is something called landscape function, based again on the directions. There are certain plants that we can put in there, certain forms, certain, I would say, lights, or even elements like fire or water. Even people put sometimes Jacuzzi or a pool, really in an area that can really harm not just the landscape but can harm the people that live in the house. For us, what Desha is with water features, it's very crucial in the landscape.

0:20:15 - Julie

Fascinating. All right, so you and I are tree huggers, I guess because we talked to the plants? Yes, we are, but we are Okay, all right. So that's just bringing up a whole bunch more questions for me. I have talked to other Feng Shui people obviously Feng Shui consultants and they use some kind of a grid that goes on the home and it seems to be the same for everybody. What I keep hearing you say is that it's different for everybody, based on your birth date, and that's what your app really helps you determine. Can you talk about that a little bit? What's the difference between those? Is one like ancient Chinese and another one's less ancient Chinese, or what's the difference?

0:21:03 - Marie

Well, first of all, I'm a classically Feng Shui trained Feng Shui master, so I got into trained by a Grandmaster in Malaysia with Chinese. So we really use a lot of what I would say schools and schools who are like taught forms and taught processes, and one of them is landscape, the other is the water dragon formula is all about water. It's your compass that's connected with your personal Feng Shui. It's a time Feng Shui it's called flying stars and there's so many other processes, but they are the major ones. What you're talking about, the blog about, or the mapping, is something that was is actually not considered ancient Feng Shui. It is actually set up in the early 80s by a Chinese. I would say I won't call him a Feng Shui master, but you know he was considered later on a Feng Shui master, but I would say somebody that tried to help to bring Feng Shui to the America and set it up in such a way that it was more general.

And so it actually always says a front door is a career and your relationship is back to the left. But that's actually not true, because your front door cannot be the north, it can be the south, it can be the east. So we focus exactly on the compass and, based on the compass of action, when you are, you moved into the house, and then, of course, the birthdays of the people in the house, the major breadwinners and even the decorations that are the renovations you have, that can really shift the whole basic floor plan energy. And so we have cycles of 20 years and every 20 years there's new floor plans that are that we need to tap into and your, your career energy cannot be at your front door, can be all the way to the left, can be in the south. It depends on when you moved in and when you, you know, set up the whole building, and so it's.

It's very more advanced. So the blog, while mapping, works sometimes very well, for, especially for houses that have cardinal directions north, south, east or west people have good reactions. But I have so many times people say that it started working and then it stopped, because if they have directions that are southwest, south, east, north east, north west, they that mapping definitely will not work, and so it is just like they made it easily. And you know, as the first Feng Shui books in America came out with the mapping, a lot of people think that is really Feng Shui, but this is, like you know, in China, the Chinese Feng Shui mass don't really consider that real Feng Shui.

Well, and I know in Asia that people rely on experts like you to position their homes, position their sky, rise buildings, position other things, and they wouldn't even think about building a building until they can sort with a Feng Shui master.

0:24:09 - Marie

That's correct. So in Hong Kong actually, you cannot even have a permit to to build a sky rise if you have not the consent of a Feng Shui master how to place it. You know, and I know I'm a guest in the culture. But I'm also, you know, well trained and I was actually the only, at that time only European Feng Shui master for a long time because I had trained, but I the more that I studied that it was just like I understood it completely. It was like at least I was studying, at the end of the day I was teaching already the other students how to do it. It was just like something so natural for me because on top of it, like you, you I could see the energy, like I could see when I changed the desk or I put something else. I see immediately the chakras change of the people looking at it. I see the aura field change. So that has been an extra gift for me to be that intuitive.

But I really base the practical Feng Shui and I use the low ponds as very special tool and we use also the dousing rods to make sure that if I place your bed somewhere, that you're not sleeping on underground water, because if I would, then I would make you sick. So a lot of people think it's it's a simple thing, but it's really. It is quite complex. But that's why the book

Feng Shui Alive I create a beginner's guide for that and it's on Amazon and do good bookstores so they have like me with them at the beginning, but focusing on the personal Feng Shui, both focusing on your birthday, because that alone she shifts things very fast. Don't you have a TV show coming out? Yeah, a TV show coming out, yes, called Feng Shui Alive, and so that's going to be on one of the major networks in February. And so I actually always say in the network.

0:26:07 - Julie

You can say it. We're really sitting in time, so people know what it is.

0:26:10 - Marie

Okay, yeah, so it's a peacock, yeah. And so one of the things is that we go into the houses and I just use literally the app. We look at people's home bag. This one woman for a children's single mom didn't have a date for many years and she wanted desperately a date for Valentine. So we shifted her bedroom based on her birthday because she was sleeping the wrong direction. So we put her in the right direction, put the right colors based on her birthday, the right images, and she had four men inviting her out for the Valentine and she was so happy. But on top of it, her money started flowing again and she started having a raise and a promotion, and it's like even her children did so much better because she was sleeping in a much better place. So in the morning she was felt so much happier that all the rest start working, of course.

0:27:06 - Julie

Wow. Well, I'm eager to see the show because I know your stories are going to be amazing of what you go in and you do. And this is all new to me that whole Bagua map thing that's all I've been exposed to. So that's why I was so eager to talk with you and eager for everybody that's watching and listening to the show to hear what you're doing, because you're like the queen of Feng Shui in America and I know you have a huge international following. But I was really eager to find out what are you doing that's different from other people that are doing. Feng Shui Makes a lot of sense, yeah, yeah. What about people like maybe this mom who is going to be on your TV show? What can people do that don't have extra money to try and help themselves really start to recognize a difference when they make these changes? You've referred to color a couple of times. Is color something? I mean? Paint's not that expensive and we can paint a room a different color pretty easily. How does that work?

0:28:13 - Marie

Well, I always say what I do is not something you need a bit better for? First of all, I have people that lived in a tent camp and started using this formula of finding your best directions, and sometimes it's just by first of all decluttering the important areas of your personal directions. So if West, for example, is your health direction and you're suffering with your health, well, declutter the West, because that will be important for you. So that's first thing. You don't need to buy anything for that. The second thing is you start looking at what can I place there that I already have. Perhaps you have some books on health, so perhaps you have your vitamin supplements that you can put there. Perhaps you have a yoga mat. That always. First look at what you already have. And then sometimes I say to people get a little affirmation card, put your affirmations up and put that in the right direction. I sometimes just use post-it notes. Literally, I write something up and put it there Till I have something. That is better. If I need a fountain, I just put a fountain on a post-it note and put it in the right direction and then literally the fountain will come. It's just like you already start putting things up.

But of course, colors are very easy to work with and so there are certain things that, for example, for success, I have this royal blue one right now. So royal blue is a color of success. So if you find like a candle in that color or you have a vase in that color, you can put it always in your success direction. It is one of what we call the quantum colors that work for everyone. You have pink on, is that correct, right?

So pink is one of the colors of romance and so people can. Then you know, perhaps they have a rose heart, or they can print something out in that color, or you just place, you know, creative energy there and you put it in your romance or relationship direction. So, or you put that on your bed Perhaps you find you have some rose pillow, or you can find some cheap pillow cases that you put your old pillows in, so you put some of that pink on there. So it's all about adding the color, because colors are frequencies and vibrations, and so we work a lot with colors and there are 24 quantum colors that work for everyone. So where we place them, we can really enhance the energy.

0:30:44 - Julie

Well, and since our thoughts create our reality, energy is energy. If you're thinking about love, whether you have love or not, that's what's going to be attracted. Is that the basic essence of trying to attract the energy and utilizing that? You know, you draw a heart and you put it on a post-it note on your bed, or something like what you were talking about just a minute ago. Does that all play in together? I would think it does?

0:31:14 - Marie

Yeah, it does, because you know, like I said, your home is the missing link for most people. So you know they have, you know, really great thoughts and they do affirmations. But you know we do that, I don't know five, ten minutes a day. We're not so concentrated on it. But if your home can concentrate with you together on a subconscious level, then your mindset will be much easier to get focused. So it's just like I said to people, like your home is creating a story and you need to make sure that story is aligned with your mind and your heart and what you desire in life. If it's telling a different story, I'm telling you your home will win because it's bigger, it's always there, the message is constant and so if you have a wrong message around you, that message will definitely really, you know, block your mindset because, literally, your mindset, you don't do it all the time, you don't have always a discipline to always think a certain thought. Your home has a discipline because it's there all the time.

0:32:20 - Julie

And that's something that we can do, even if we're living in a small apartment that we don't really have control let's say they won't let them paint the walls or they won't let them change out things we can use those little fixes I'm going to call them, whatever you call them. What do you call them? Yeah, fixes.

0:32:39 - Marie

Well, we would say activations, Activations, we activated. And you know, I started in a small studio, right, using this, when I was, you know, very young and and first a bedroom that the studio like when I was living by myself. Now I live in a huge mansion in Bel Air, but the whole point is sometimes I couldn't change it, but then I found fabric and I would turn nails. I will put it against the wall to create some of the color, right? So it's all about being creative.

You know, and that is something that if you know the directions that are important for you, you start with that. Yeah, you start with your success direction. Declutter it, put some things that everybody has a book on success or on money, or book set or about leadership I don't know what it is. Or you work in a certain company and you can print out a logo and you put it there. Or you have like a journal with your write down all your goals, you put it in your success direction. Or you have a vision board put it in your success direction. So we always have some things around us that we can place it there. And it's like you know.

Remember this one client and he asked us can I live in a tent? What can I do? And I said, do you have post it notes? Okay, write down at the post it note, put it on the attend, whatever you want. And then three years later he was having a job, his relationship, had his own apartment, and now he goes back into the tent camp to his friends and teaches them the same method. So don't tell me you can't do it if somebody with nothing and attend can do it with post it notes.

0:34:16 - Julie

Right, oh, fabulous. All right, let's back up a little bit. You've told us that you were born and raised in Belgium. What caused you to move to America First of all? And was that free will? Was that your destiny? Was it both? Is there a difference?

0:34:36 - Marie

Well, good question. So you know I was already teaching in Belgium and in surrounding countries and but you know, I have this big mission. So when I was 15, I had an adept experience and when I was on the other side, I was giving the message that I was here to enlighten more than 500 million people. So you know, a big order. It's a big order, right? Well, you know I yes, you know, I've been in the secrets and so the secret has been watched and listened to by more than 500 million people. So it said, I got that one right.

But I thought at the time, of course I had no idea what that meant and I would say, right now I would start a TikTok account if I would have been 15 now, right. But so I started trying to make a difference and I became a lawyer. Actually, I thought if I would work with United Nations or governments and I became an international lawyer. But after five years doing that, I already was meditating, I already know a lot of this information and started a spiritual center and I started teaching meditation, enlightenment and also working with Feng Shui. But you know, after a good eight years I thought like I would never reach the millions of people if I stay in Belgium, because Belgium is only 10 million people, right, so I'm not going to reach that. So I started going back and forth to America and start having more and more students and clients in America.

And then one day I woke up with a very intense voice in my head you need to move here in three weeks. And so I called my husband and I said we're moving, it's time now. So we moved to America three weeks later and then within a month I was attracting clients that ultimately people that were like John Gray, Marcia Shyamar, Jack Canfield, Marion Williamson, so all this great luminaries started coming my way and that led me to be part of the secret. So I feel like it was. It was destiny, probably right, but also there was surrender to that destiny. So when I get the messages and like after 10 years living here, I got I need to go to America, back from America to Europe, and I needed to open up East Europe. And so for several years I worked in all East Europe and Russia to spread this work, and then recently the message was back come back to America. So I just always follow the voice that was guiding my sole purpose.

0:37:10 - Julie

Yeah, when you were told you need to go to America, where you're told you need to go to LA this last time, or how did you discern where was going to be the best place for you to go?

0:37:20 - Marie

Well, you know, when I was in San Francisco teaching the first time and so I figured out I need to come to San Francisco. But this time I knew exactly I want to come back to LA. I had lived in LA before, so after I moved from San Francisco to LA the first time, my daughter goes to UCLA, so it's easy to come to LA for me yeah right, All right.

0:37:45 - Julie

So you can't leave us hanging about your near death experience. Tell us about that.

0:37:51 - Marie

Well, you know, it's just been interesting. I was driving home from school with my bike, because everybody in Belgium drives bikes, and so I was very close to home. But a truck hit me and you know I had accidents. They initially declared me dead, so they already put a fabric over me and then God and neighbor saw it and run to my mother. My mother came to the the location of the accident, starts really screaming and yelling to for them to try to revive me, and so I was in the ambulance when I was hovering over my body, seeing my mom in the ambulance, thinking like what is that Right, my mom is here. Like that didn't make sense to me. And I saw the ambulance guy that I thought was so cute. I just, you know, later on described my mom. He had blonde hair, curly hair, blue eyes. My God, that was the most beautiful guy I've ever seen.

And so, but I left my body even further and I just went in front of. I was like in a body of light, and there were, like other, I would say, beings of light. You're called a master or angels. I will leave that in the middle. And so, and this one voice said you need to go back. You're here to enlighten more than 500 million people. So I came back a few days later and and that has been my purpose every morning I wake up with that mantra and I ask every morning to God to unify us, show me how. And I'm going to say feng shui was one of the house.

Yeah, fascinating. I do the same thing every morning on my morning prayers God, show me, show me how I can serve today. Same thing, same thing, oh, basic. What prompted you to choose Feng shui? Were you just led there or had you ever heard of it as a 15 year old? What was that? That whole journey for you from being a lawyer international lawyer to feng shui number one and number two I know that you are clairvoyant and I want to hear about that. And you were clairvoyant as a little child. Is that correct? Yes, yeah, yeah. So I went in and got that.

0:40:04 - Marie

Yeah, well, first of all, you know, when I was seven, I met my spiritual master so it's an ascended master, saint Germain that came to see me and he started teaching me meditation, and so I think you know, I don't know why he came directly to me I always think because there was probably nobody else around. Which saint are you? Song and Wim Yairly exciting for me. He's known for the violet flame, it's known for releasing karma, really, and so it was very interesting. As a child, I had just conversations and meetings with him in the other realms, probably right, and.

But when I was 15, and I after the accident, I was very depressed because I had a lot of learning problems after my accident. And then one day he came by and I asked him what did I do wrong? And he just said, very funny, bad Feng Shui, Marie. And I was like what's that? And so he explained it to me that the location of where I was sleeping was really bad. I was sleeping on the north side of the house, there was no sunlight and I was very depressed there. So I moved to the west side, when it's really a good direction for me. So I attracted from, instead of being bullied at school I attracted a lot of friends of my first love, so a lot of things started changing when I moved there, and so he told me Leishuan, I will bring you more information about that, focus first on your meditation. So he brought me more inside of that. But then he also directed me to become a lawyer. He was very clear I needed to become a lawyer, and that was indeed important because I worked with a lot of top celebrities and companies, and so if I would not have that lawyer degree, I don't think that would accept me completely. And so it's only when I was dirty that he told me that it was time that I need to study about Feng Shui. But he always told me, like you need to be very visible and still under the radar, and said Feng Shui will help you with that, because I go mainstream with Feng Shui. So if I would talk about meditations, people don't always get it, but I speak to people from all religions, from all backgrounds, all political backgrounds, all cultures, and so the energy of their home is something they have access to, they are open to it, and of course then I bring them to a higher frequency and higher realms as they're going through it. So that's one of the things that I've been doing and it's really indicated by him that was my direction to bring forward.

But as a child, I always saw energy. I saw people's aura field. The shock was like no idea what it meant. I thought everybody could see it, to be honest, and I would say things to my parents like oh you know, grandfather is dead tomorrow. You better speak nicely to him.

Or I would see like when there was something wrong between two people, like I literally told my mom you got, my father had an affair. I was five years old, right, and I was like they're doing things that are not okay. So I just could see. They were like aligned and didn't make sense that, you know, my father and this woman would be so aligned. So my parents were very open to it because when I was born, my father had a clairvoyant priest, a Catholic priest that was an advisor to many politicians and big people in my country, and so he told my father that I was clairvoyant and that whatever I would say, they had to listen to me and that was a gift of God. So I'm very grateful to that priest because otherwise, you know, you never know how people react with I say certain things. So it was like always normal in my for my parents. When I would say something, they were like, oh, yeah, okay. So they treated me as very normal about it, what I'm very grateful for.

0:44:08 - Julie

Yeah, absolutely. When you saw your dad and his mistresses shockers aligned what did that look like? Explain what that means. What that means.

0:44:17 - Marie

Well, it was like you know tentacles. Yeah, I saw this, like the tentacles were like coming together. But I saw the same tentacles with my mom and my dad too, right. So it was like that was with my mom and my dad. That made sense, but that was with her and my father. I knew that didn't make sense, I just knew, right. So it was just like the shockers were like you know, as tentacles coming together.

0:44:43 - Julie

Right. And then I saw this bioplasm extremers and that's how I connect to my clients remotely is I watch it looks like a laser beam, Marie, coming from my body, from my sternum, and it hooks in directionally wherever they are. I watch it, it's like I'm watching it go across a map, I watch it go across oceans or or whatever, and and I call those bioplasm extremers. What's an energy number?

0:45:09 - Marie

So based on your birthday and your birth date, you have an energetic profile and we call that profile a number. So you have one to nine and so based on that number, then it there's an archetype. So, like I'm a connector, so that means I love to connect East and West, I love to connect the dots of difference, background and science, holistically, and science I love to connect people Right. So that's kind of who I am. But it also means that there are four directions connected with each number. So the number is actually the basic at the start for your personal Feng Shui.

0:45:48 - Julie

Okay, isn't it interesting how numbers are involved in everything. It's like the universal language is numbers. I I think of the movie contact. Did you ever see that with Jodi Foster? I think it was released in the late eight, early eighties maybe, and she's getting. For those of you that don't know what I'm talking about, she's getting information downloaded. It's all a bunch of numbers, and the numbers turn into a, basically an architectural drawing of how to build a ship to travel through the cosmos. I'm going to have a math professor on this show here soon and she's using numbers in a different way and connecting it to different things like art to teach math to especially small children, because she's found out that it lays different pathways in the brain and helps them understand how numbers are the universal language. So it's interesting that you've tapped into that as well with your mental health, yeah, and Feng Shui.

0:46:52 - Marie

Feng Shui is really mathematical formulas. So if you go deeper into the science behind it because some people call it an art I really believe it's a science, a quantum physics science of the environment, and so it's really interesting. I saw that movie in the eighties and I thought at that time I want to work with Jodi Foster one day and she's actually one of my clients. Oh, I love that. That's quite interesting, right. But yeah, numbers I mean I always say God is a mathematician.

0:47:22 - Julie

Because that's the universal way to communicate, because everybody understands numbers, whether you're using an abacus or whatever. I remember when the pocket calculators came out or the complex mathematical programs and stuff, and it was just magic that she could do that job in an instant. And there are still people that like to use an abacus. I mean, that's not unheard of you. Do a phenomenal job, in my opinion, of combining ancient wisdom and modern day neuroscience. Tell us about that.

0:48:02 - Marie

Well, you know one of the things and it's based on the energy that I saw I always saw that when people would be in a different position or they would have different colors, I could really see like the brain waves change, and so it's like I could almost like what's that look like. It's like waves, literally like spikes, so I could like see that like coming out of their head. It's really weird. But then later on I found out I was in awakened Delta. So after the accident I stayed constantly in awakened Delta state, and so what it is is that normally in Delta state you're asleep, and I'm sure you're in awakened Delta too, Julie, otherwise you would not do this work. So most people have what I would call beta, delta, beta state, and beta is when you're concentrated, but there's like it's like a survival way of thinking, right, and it's also very connected with your, your reptilian brain. So the energy goes to the back and so these brains are really showing up in the back of the, the, the head, and then, when people are more into, I would say, alpha state, then the energy comes really here at the front of the frontal cortex. I see these waves coming out here, and so I saw that people went there, for example, sitting, but they're back to the door, that all the spikes come here, all the waves come here, and so then they are more in survival mode, more in worries, more in fears, because they stay there a trillion consciousness, and so they're surviving. And then when people turn their desk around, for example, they see the door, like all the energy starts opening up here at the third eye but it's also more than dirt eyes, of course, starts working better, and so they go into Alpha state. And so when we're in Alpha state, we see opportunities, we see our creative or optimistic, we see the future, we have solutions in front of us. So I start seeing that, you know, with people not just on the shockers I start seeing that.

And then we did tests here with encephalograms and we saw that indeed, if people, for example, face a good direction, so one of their four directions, immediately the alpha wave starts spiking within a few seconds. And then later on I start using muscle testing to show people how to feel it, because I cannot do the encephalograms all the time on the body, that would be too difficult. But you know, if they're, then, for example, would face a good direction. Their muscle testing is strong. So when you push on the arm and when they are facing the wrong direction, then the encephalograms show that they were faster going into beta brainwaves and that literally their muscle testing would be weak.

So when I'm working with people I use muscle testing because I cannot, you know, put an encephalogram on people's head all the time. So but that's kind of I saw it first and we tested it. You know more scientifically and then you know at certain places, when all the directions are activated and your house is in a good function, you go very easy in Tata brainwaves. What is the healing frequencies? So people heal faster. I saw a lot of healers and coaches. By having the home in a stronger function they have more effect and more impact with their work.

How do you pay attention to that? And I work with people every workday clients all over and it's interesting to me that you're talking about those energy frequencies coming out of the head, because oftentimes I'll see it's like a fog in front of the frontal lobes and I can always tell if they're on medication, whether it be prescription or recreational drugs, because it's like if we dip a Q-tip in baby oil, there's this clear oily ring around the perimeter of that, and so I'll say, do you experience brain fog? And they'll say, oh, yeah. And I'll say, okay, what medications are you on? You know what are you doing and then I can watch it get removed in the healing.

But I'm going to pay attention from what you just taught me, to pay attention to what happens after that. Does that open up the energy that's coming out in the creative areas and things like that? I'm going to add that to my scans. That's going to be really interesting. What do you do? And it is yeah, I see that. Do you see that? I see that when there's brain fog in front of the frontal lobes.

0:52:47 - Marie

Yeah, well, it's like I see it more in the etheric shields. Like I turn into the etheric shield and there's like a cloud. That's what it looks like. Yeah, it is kind of client. Yeah, it is grayish, yeah, it's a grayish cloud and so normally it should be like blue-white, but the energy should be blue-white and so like blueish-white energy.

And so, you know, when I see people having this cloud, I already know because that's my intuitive side from looking in the house I'm sure they're sleeping the wrong direction, yeah, and because when they wake up they will not have the access to that third eye. And so it could be that they're sleeping on negative vortex or underground water. And I see, sometimes I see the lines of that underground water. It cannot just be here. It can be literally like a blue instead of the blue-white, it's like a gray line that is over their body and I'm like, oh, you have problems there and there. And I said okay, because of course I focus on the healing aspect, that you do, but I look at the healing of the home, right, and then we put specific sticks out and like acupuncture sticks for the home, we put it in there and literally within 24 hours, that is clear yeah, and then it starts showing up again as a blue-white energy.

0:54:13 - Julie

Interesting. Well, and that would make sense because the home back to the mold example is affecting that. What I see a correlation a lot of the time when I see that in somebody that has medical issues is not only is there a hormone imbalance, there's a malabsorption issue, there's all these other issues and I've never thought about it stemming from the home before. But that makes total sense for me. In other words, I have so many questions for you, so little time. You've been knighted a dame. Tell us about that.

0:54:51 - Marie

So there are several organizations beyond the royal lineage that can knight people at date. So there's the oldest organization and it's the Xinjiang Knights from Malta. That is actually it's this for more than a thousand years, right? That? Just really. People that have brought a difference into the world have been creating a lot of charity support. I mean, there are, you know, Nobel Prize winners. There are sometimes statesmen, and so they look for people and they follow their career for a while and then they invite you to become a dame or a knight, and so it's an official title I'm a dame, and so it's really beautiful. It's like you're through an old ceremony you get knighted with the, the oil, and you get knighted with the sword, and so it's an old tradition and people that are knighted and they feel like even more the stronger purpose to make a big difference in the world. So it's really it's like an honor, but at the same time it's almost like a request to do more.

0:56:14 - Julie

Yeah, and I'm familiar with that order. And when I was watching King Charles get whatever you know what do they call it when he, when he was coronated, I guess, yeah, and when they did that and the robes and the whole thing that he had on, did you wear those robes like that?

0:56:34 - Marie

Well, it's another similar role, but, yeah, that you have to put on for that day. You know, and those oil families are part of the Knights of Saint John, but it's a hospital night, so they were actually, as you had the Templar Knights, you had the hospital night. So they were the ones that made hospitals all over Europe to support the wounded ones. So, from there, it's still the tradition that the people that are in there are they, they. You know, we have a special Malta cross that we wear in certain occasions and so, yeah, it's a huge honor to be part of it.

0:57:11 - Julie

It's a big deal because my whole body is vibrating with you talking about it. I have total body goosebumps, so there's definitely some serious mojo going on with that. You talk about the three parts of the law of attraction. Please talk to us about those and what are they and how do they work?

0:57:30 - Marie

Well, we actually talked about it when I talked about there's a spiritual lack, the or the heavenly lack, the human lack, and it's the earth lack. So when we're connecting with our soul and we are doing our prayers and we're doing our meditations and we're connecting with God, that is actually how we create spiritual luck and that depends on where you're from right. It's depending on your spiritual beliefs and religions, but it's actually your sole purpose, is connected with that part. And then, of course, the self-help and the self-development world is focusing more on that second part, about the human lack finding your full human potential to work with your mindset, to be grateful, to do how to deal with your emotional being, you know how to also take actions right and to do it always from a perspective of doing good for yourself and doing good for others. That's your second part. And I would say since the seventies, that human lack has been really, you know, really enhanced and been activated in the Western world, where the spiritual lack has been around for thousands of years in all religions and all backgrounds. But I would say the human lack are really focusing on getting the mindset right. That's where, in the secret, you know the movie and the book they're focused on the most, and there was the only one that was talking about the environmental lack. Yeah, and so how Feng Shui and dousing and space clearing is really affecting how you feel in your space.

And I always say this is the foundation, and a lot of people are sometimes they have all these great changes they're making right. If it's through healing, if it's through changing the mindset, if it's through spiritual work, they initially sometimes cannot integrate it or they cannot activate it or they cannot implement it because their home is not aligned with what they really want. And so once you add that missing link to it, it's like, you see, like all the healing goes easier, all the changes you make go easier. So I would say you can hit to the top of the mountain with the willpower, but it will be with a lot of effort. So if you have the wind behind you that means your home is aligned then literally you are.

I would say you have the wind with you, so you will have more ease, more effortless energy to get to the top of the mountain. So think about what you did with your mother's China. You would still have found a way to solve it and get the abundance, but it that was blocking you somehow. So it creates more effort. So I always say you know, it's all about ease and effortless. And if I look at my life and the things I have created, you know those people think I work hard. I do work hard, but I have so much wind behind me.

1:00:31 - Julie

You're talking to Marie about forgiveness and changing one's mindset as far as grudges and being grateful and things like that. Can you address that a little bit for us please? Yeah?

1:00:46 - Marie

So for me, forgiveness is has been really crucial in my life personally. So you know, I come from. My father, you know, was somebody who had a post-traumatic stress syndrome from World War II. I was very aggressive, both physically and emotionally and mentally, and so for me I really knew that if I wanted to really get to another level in myself I had to be able to forgive him and to forgive myself for holding on to it.

So when my father had stage four cancer when I was 25, I just finished college and I had to take care for six months of him, he didn't want to go to a hospital, so I was doing all the palliative care with my mother for him and what happened is like I really thought I needed to forgive him. So the week before he died he thought I was the priest and so he told all the stories of his life, like all the things he did wrong, and there was a lot that you know my father abused women, my father killed some people, so he had hold on to a lot of that. You can imagine as a medical intuitive that you know that of course created a lot of the issues from his cancer. And so he asked me for forgiveness. So I gave him forgiveness as like the priest, but I was not ready to give him forgiveness as his daughter. And so the last week of his life I really struggled, but I decided that if I wanted to really get into my sole purpose, I had to forgive my father, the man I hated the most in my life. And so the night before he died I completed the gratification and after gave him a name of all the women and all the people that he ever, you know, abused and treated wrong.

And so the release on his body. It was like from somebody who suffered like crazy. Suddenly, the peace that came into his body was so life-shifting, and the peace that came in my body and in my mind, in my heart. And I would say, without that piece of forgiveness I would not have reached my enlightenment experience a few years later, I would not become the teacher and have all this compassion in my life, in my heart, to help people, because forgiveness was a crucial part for it. And I know, by doing the work with the violent flame that I did since I was seven, you know, with Saint Germain, releasing all my karma, releasing as much as I could, all the grudges, I would probably not have been able to do that either.

1:03:30 - Julie

Wow. A couple more questions as we're winding down. You talk about brain energy versus heart energy and how heart energy is more powerful. Can you tell us your thoughts about that?

1:03:45 - Marie

Yes, Well, you know, we have our brains left on the right brain, but we also have our third brain right, and our third brain is the heart intelligence. And so now, since the Heart Med Eds Institute, for example, they have done a lot of research lately that you know we have an intelligence in our heart. That's actually what I believe is our soul intelligence, right, our brain intelligence is connected with our personality and what we do, and it's needed for our body to function, our mind to function, but our soul is directly connected with our heart. And so when people want to really connect with their soul purpose, they need to have an open heart, they need to really allow that heart intelligence to start.

And one of the things I've seen is that Feng Shui is one of the ways to open up that heart intelligence. And we all know that when we go somewhere and we feel at home, right, we go to a place and we're like, ah, I feel at home and I always say, well, in the word home is word, home right is a word peace and balance. And so when you go to a place where you feel that energy, that own vibration, is because your heart is vibrating there on that peaceful vibration of the universe, and so we come to a place where we don't feel that relaxation and we go back into that mind that is busy and is focused on different levels. But I do believe when your home is Feng Shui, your heart, intelligence can work better.

Okay, one last question why do we incarnate?

1:05:30 - Marie

Okay, so we incarnate to really become that spiritual self. You know, I do believe we have gotten into the evolution. We came from spirit back into matter and now we are going from matter back into spirit. And so each time we re-enclinate, we choose this way to learn some life lessons, some to really found our sole purpose. And I do believe that when you really have found your sole purpose, that you probably will not re-enclinate again because you know you have really gotten the spirit into the matter. You brought your spirit into matter and so yeah, it is. It's a journey and we can't do it all in one lifetime. That's just not possible, even if you live a long lifetime. And each lifetime I think you look at different perspectives of how to really incarnate that light, that spirit that you are.

1:06:31 - Julie

Great answer. How can people learn more about you and your work?

1:06:36 - Marie

Well, they can go first of all to mariediamond.com. That is the easiest access. They can go also download the free Marie Diamond app. They just put on the app stores Marie Diamond. Then there's the book that just came out from Shui Alay, from Hay House, in good bookstores and in Amazon and, yeah, I would say Instagram. They can find me there Marie Diamond official YouTube channel. So there's a lot of free information for people to start with, and I'm looking forward to support people with enlightening themselves by enlightening them?

1:07:12 - Julie

And when does your new TV show start on the Peacock Network?

1:07:16 - Marie

Well, we will know this week by probably February.

1:07:19 - Julie

In February. All right, you guys. Well, my goodness, what a wonderful conversation. I learned a lot. I know everybody listening learned a lot too. All of you that are listening, please like, subscribe, share this conversation with your family and friends, because there are so many golden nuggets of information here that can be useful to anybody that watches or listens to this. So, in the meantime, sending you lots of love from Sweet Home Alabama, and from California to where Marie is. We'll see you next time, thank you.
